Prestigious Product Spotlight

StepNpull

Springfield, MO

Located in Greene County, MO, StepNpull manufactures foot-operated door openers that work on any latch-less commercial wood or metal door. The StepNpull product comes in four different finishes and is distributed nationwide to customers like NASA, Ford, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, Google, U.S. Army and Facebook.

StepNpull is easy to install, cost effective and helps to prevent the spread of germs and eliminate cross-contamination. This product provides a touch free and germ free option when exiting a room by simply stepping and pulling.

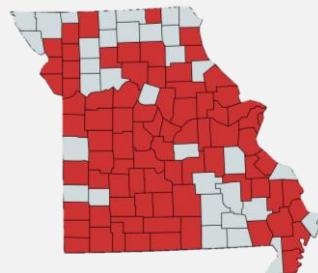

StepNpull has been especially instrumental during the COVID-19 pandemic, providing a product that promotes a clean, safe environment. In fact, StepNpull can even be found in our very own State Capitol.
