Conversation with Kehoe

Missouri State Fair

"Earlier this month I was able to visit the Missouri State Fair. While the fair certainly looked different than previous years, it was great to be able to represent the Lieutenant Governor's Office and the Buy Missouri program while visiting with fair goers and livestock exhibitors.

While there, I was able to speak with some Buy Missouri members who were also visiting the fair. I am hopeful next year things will be back to business. I look forward to Buy Missouri Week in October and being able to meet more members, learn about their products and hear their stories."
