Prestigious Product Spotlight

QMaxx Products Group, Inc.
Fenton, MO

Located in St. Louis County, Missouri, QMaxx Products Group, Inc. is the developer and manufacturer of a family of cleaners, lubricants, rust/corrosion protectants and preventatives which use patented, water displacement technology.

QMaxx products are engineered to perform under the most adverse industrial and environmental conditions. Their patented technology provides a unique solution to the destructive and costly problem of rust and corrosion. Bonding at a molecular level allows for a durable, long-lasting barrier between moisture and metal surfaces which protects and prevents rust and corrosion.

To reach QMaxx Products, call 888-389-9455 or visit qmaxxproducts.com

Conversation with Kehoe

"As I travel around the state to visit Buy Missouri members, I am constantly impressed with the number of companies that integrate products from other Missouri businesses into their manufacturing processes.

I encourage each of you to research the Buy Missouri website or get in touch with other MO companies and explore the idea of integrating other Missouri products into your own!"

Michael Kehoe
