Looking Ahead

"It is no secret that Missouri endured a tough last two months. But, as the state reopened earlier this month, Missouri businesses have played an important part in boosting the state's economy and getting Missouri back on track.

As Missouri moves forward I am hopeful for what the future hold for Buy Missouri and Missouri businesses. We are looking forward to doing some traveling throughout the state this summer, as well as participating in the State Fair in August and Buy Missouri Week in October. I know there are great things to come."
