Conversation with Kehoe

“Welcome to the new Buy Missouri Members and Retail Partners. I am continually impressed by the businesses across Missouri who manufacture quality products and continue to support fellow local businesses. My small business background has instilled in me the importance of small, local businesses to our economy, which is why I continue to encourage MO businesses to work with, and support, one another. It is inspiring to see businesses collaborating and working together all over the state. If you are interested in working with, or getting to know, other MO businesses, be sure to visit the Buy Missouri website or reach out to my office for assistance.”
